Exhibitor Introduction	The Korea Communications Agency (KCA), established in 1972, has led the growth of broadcasting and communication for over 50 years. We manage spectrum as a national resource, conduct radio station inspections, and ensure electromagnetic safety for secure communications. KCA also supports content production through the Bitmaru Broadcasting Studio, enhancing the global competitiveness of K-content. By managing the ICT Fund and fostering ICT professionals, we contribute to industrial growth and job creation. Looking ahead, KCA aims to be a world-leading ICT institution, advancing digital transformation through global cooperation.
